PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE by Ray Williams

May has arrived although I don't see a lot of improvement in the weather. We seem to have another wet spring. We had our first meeting of the year on April 9 and over 60 people attended. I want to thank each of you who showed your support by attending this meeting. We have a great meeting planned for May 14th with an excellent speaker. I hope all of you plan to attend & feel free to bring a prospective member with you! Remember meetings are open to spouses also! We have some nice tournaments planned again for this year. Sign up early. Good luck fishing & enjoy this issue of the newsletter.

THE MAY ISSUE by Dick Vesper

Speaker Changes: Bill Figley had to reschedule to June 11.

Jim Hutchinson Sr. will now be our May 14 speaker (not June 11). Jim Hutchinson Sr. is the Fishing Editor for the "Islander", writes an excellent fishing column for the "Times-Beacon" and also offers his services as a coach for Southern Regional High School. Thanks to both speakers for helping us work out the schedule change.

A description & signup for the 2004 South Bay Tournament, June 26th & 27th, has been added (Pg. 8).

The VHFC Board has added a November meeting to the 2004 calendar as well as dates for the Dinner and the Fluke & Sea Bass Tournament.

The updated calendar is enclosed as page 6.

Roland Dixon gave us the following web site as a follow-up reference to his two excellent April articles related to the dangers of Towing versus Salvage:

FISH OF THE MONTH AWARD by George Fruh

The winner of the Fish of the Month for March and April is Vince Sibona with a Winter Flounder caught on April 9th weighing 2 lb 1oz. Good way to start the year – Congratulations Vince.

Reminder: The 2004 Fish of the Month Schedule is different than in 2003. For 2004 it is:

March & April	Winter Flounder
May	Weakfish
June	Fluke
July	Bluefish
August	Sea Bass
September	Fluke
October/November	Striped Bass

2004 TROPHY FISH OF THE YEAR by George Fruh

The status of our 2004 Trophy Fish of the Year competition through April is:

Winter Flounder (04/09) 2lb 1 oz Vince Sibona

NEW WEIGH-IN STATION by Ray Williams

Effective May 1, American Sportsman Bait & Tackle in the Mill Creek Plaza (behind WAWA) on Millcreek Road in Manahawkin is an additional weigh-in station for VHFC Fish of the Year & Fish of the Month. Fisherman's Headquarters will remain as a weigh-in site but the Board felt that giving members who live on the mainland a place to go on days when traffic to Long Beach Island is a nightmare would encourage more members to enter these contests. Fisherman's Headquarters will remain our primary site & we would like to remind our members that they have done many things for our club over the years, including discounts to members, donating prizes to the club, & hosting our web site.

FISHING REPORT by Dave Sikorski

Around the last week of April, reports of Weakfish and Bluefish began popping up. These guys should be all over the bay in May. Bluefish were actually eating small worms meant for Winter Flounder. The Winter Flounder seem to be hitting their peak as they head out to sea for the summer. There were several reports of double digit catches, but these are likely to be gone by the time this newsletter is published. I actually read that a Fluke has already been caught! The Fluke season opens May 8th this year. Striped Bass have been taking clams and worms along the sod banks around both inlets, at Gravelling Point and on the Beach. However, the bite is very spotty, and hard to correlate. Those who put in their time are usually the ones who are rewarded. Now would be the time to try chumming with clams for stripers, as Bill Haluska discussed with us at one of our meetings last year. The Tautog have been coming in off the wrecks when the weather and seas cooperate, and the Sea Bass should be inshore soon, too. For more timely reports, check the Tips & Links button on our web site: we have links to a few of the local daily reports. Get out there and have some fun, and don't forget to weigh in your fish, so we can list it on the Weigh-ins page. Please help conserve our fisheries by practicing catch and release. Keep only the fish you intend to eat and share with friends. Tight lines.

WEAKFISH TOURNAMENT by Don Longstreet & Bill Dabney

This will be the last newsletter before the tournament, which is scheduled for Saturday, June 5th. We had hoped to have some members and their spouses signed up by now.

The forms for registering to participate are on page 7 of this newsletter. Forms must be filled out and a check attached for each participant.

Also, the Captain of the boat must sign all forms.

Last year there were 34 people trying for the big fish. D. J. Longstreet caught a 9lb. 1oz. weakfish to take first place. Hopefully, with more people participating this year, we will beat last year's record fish and prize money.

Here are a few suggestions regarding bait for those who might not be familiar with this area. Pink

Fin S, sandworms, shedder crabs, and the most popular, grass shrimp, can be used for chum and bait. Shrimp can be purchased at some local bait stores.

The after-tournament weigh-ins and social affair will take place at Don Longstreet's, home at 28 Ronnie Drive, Beach Haven West. The weigh-ins will be from 2PM-3PM sharp.

PLEASE GET THOSE COMPLETED REGISTRATION FORMS IN AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, and certainly by June 4th.

JCAA APRIL MEETING REPORT by John Borick

The Federal Commission on Ocean Policy brought up the issue of a saltwater fishing license. They suggest a license will help fishery managers assess the catch. But as we in the fishing public know, they received $220,000 per year from the tuna permit fee, and screwed up so bad, that we don't even know if we'll have a (tuna) season this year. The JCAA feels momentum will build against the ocean commission's saltwater fishing license.

The Federal Commission on Ocean Policy is a federal organization with too many politicians. This organization subcontracted out a survey to find out the amount of tuna being caught by sport fisherman. It was a total bust. Now we are not even sure whether we will be allowed to fish for tuna this year. By the way, Tom Fote mentioned that the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission (ASMFC) has been doing a good job in most fishery matters.

The NJ Senate has introduced the freedom to fish act to protect saltwater fishing access. The JCAA opposes the bill, because it has included the commercial fishery. (Ed. Note: RFA supports this bill. That makes it a dilemma for us.)

The 8th annual Barnegat Bay Festival will be Saturday, June 5, 2004 at the Berkeley Island County Park at 10AM until 4PM. The festival includes craft vendors, food vendor, and children activities. There will be free boat trips across the bay, and guided bus tours of the Cedar Creek watershed. Registration required for tours. (732-255-0472).

With over $110,000 in cash and prizes consider entering the JCAA Fluke Tournament on June 12. The entry fee is $100 per boat up to six anglers. Support your (JCAA) Jersey Coast Anglers Association. Visit the JCAA web page at <<http://www.jcaa.org>, or you can enter by phone by calling 732-506-6565.

FISHING REGULATIONS (email from Tom Fote)

The summer flounder recreational season, previously May 3 through October 13, is now May 8 through October 11. The recreational minimum size limit is still 16½ inches and the possession limit remains at eight fish.

The black sea bass two-segment recreational season, formerly January 1 through September 1 and September 16 through November 30, has been changed to January 1 through September 7 and September 22 to November 30. The recreational minimum size limit is still 12 inches and the possession limit remains at 25 fish.

OBTAIN AND USE STRIPED BASS BONUS CARDS

The New Jersey Fish & Wildlife Striped Bass Bonus Fish Program provides fish possession cards to anglers, allowing them to possess one additional striped bass per day, with restrictions. This special case only applies to New Jersey's marine and estuarine waters up to the freshwater fishing line. An application for fish possession cards may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed, #10 envelope to NJ F & W, Striped Bass Fish program, PO Box 418, Port Republic, NJ 08241. For a list of Striped Bass Bonus Program Check Stations call 609-748-2020 or visit their site: www.njfishandwildlife.com.

JCAA, RFA and our VHFC Board are encouraging our members to obtain and use the cards, even if only one fish is caught. If you do, you will be helping us in avoiding our being squeezed too hard by the Federal Regulators.

STRIPERS IN RARITAN BAY by Larry Gonnella

It was early June of the 2000 season and the reports for stripers on Flynn's Knoll were promising. I telephoned Barry & Susan Gabler and suggested they make time for a trip up North.

I explained the method we would use to catch these fish and it sounded very interesting to Barry who had not tried it before. We arranged to meet at the marina and leave the dock by 7am.

Following the pre-departure trips to the rest rooms, we left the marina for the 15-minute run to Flynn's Knoll. After a brief search around the Knoll the color recorder began to indicate scattered fish along the bottom. We anchored on a small piece of bottom structure and set out the clam chum.

It wasn't more than 10 minutes and Susan was into the first striper of the day. Barry was next, then me. For the next 30 minutes the action was non-stop, a mix of legal fish and shorts were brought on board, tagged and released and then disaster struck.

I had landed a fish for Susan and was attempting to remove it from the net, when in her eagerness to help she reached down to grab the fish. Before I could stop her fish made a sudden flip and Susan was hooked with a # 4 circle hook in her finger! You can imagine what my thoughts and silent expletives were. We were having the fishing day of our lives and now we would have to leave to get medical attention for Susan.

For those that don't know Susan she is a surgical nurse. Under her direction we made several attempts to remove the hook but to no avail. Susan decided she wasn't going to leave this fantastic fishing either and instructed us to cut the exposed portions of the hook, dress and bandage the wound.

She continued to fish the rest of the day. The frantic fishing action continued until we ran out of bait. The total count of fish caught, tagged and released that day was over 80 fish.

Susan was brought to S.O.S.H. on the way home to have the hook removed. Her only complaint was that she didn't have time to shower, do her hair, and apply makeup before going to the emergency room!!!

AMERICAN EEL ENDANGERED Extracted by Dick Vesper from the March/April 2004 "ASMFC Fisheries Focus"

Canadian and US data show 2003 commercial American Eel landings are the lowest on record since 1945. The International Eel Symposium at the 2003 American Fisheries Society Annual Meeting reported a worldwide decline of eel populations, including the East Coast stock of American Eel. ASMFC plans to address the continued stock declines. Issues to be addressed include changes in the management programs for recreational and commercial fisheries, evaluation of non-fishing sources of eel mortality and review of ASMFC monitoring requirements. Among other ASMFC Eel Board recommendations was that the USFWS and the NMFS evaluate if listing of the entire east coast stock of American Eel under the Endangered Species Act is warranted. (Ed. Note: The American Eel is a major part of our fishery/habitat as well as favorite bait for Stripers. I'll keep you posted as more news breaks.)

MARINE INSURANCE: A BOATERS

NECESSARY EVIL submitted by Ray Williams and written by Joe Campisano

Why do you need Marine Insurance and how much do you need?

This all depends on your individual circumstances and financial condition. Of course, if you have a loan on your boat, your lien holder requires you to carry enough hull value liability to pay off your loan in the event of a total loss. If you do not have a loan, you should carry either the purchase price value or current market value as an insured value.

In our current market, it is possible to buy a boat below market value. Many owners request to insure their boat at “replacement cost”, or what it would cost to purchase a similar boat without obtaining a “great deal”. The reality is that you usually cannot replace the boat for what you paid and most companies will only allow either purchase price or a value within 25% of the purchase price to compensate for any possible upgrades you do to the boat. Besides, why pay more premiums than you have to when the objective is to cover your investment in the vessel.

Liability amounts vary and depend upon your financial condition. Liability protects you in the event you are sued as a result of your negligence while operating your vessel. I recommend carrying at least $300,000 in liability and if you own a home and have substantial financial holdings, that you add an Umbrella Liability policy onto your current homeowners policy of at least $1,000,000. This will give you more than adequate liability coverage.

How can I save on a policy?

The type of policy, Agreed Value or Actual Cash Value, determines a large portion of the premium charged.

Agreed Value policies are those that pay an agreed amount of the total value of the vessel in the event of a total loss. These policies typically will be more expensive and are better suited for boats less than ten years old. For older boats you can save money by purchasing an Actual Cash Value policy. These policies pay the depreciated or “book value” of the vessel in the event of a total loss.

Another way to save is to take a higher deductible. Boat policies vary but most deductibles are based on a percentage of the total value insured, rather than a flat dollar amount. I recommend having a 2% deductible or higher. That is to say, if you insure your boat for $35,000 and choose a 2% deductible, your actual deductible is $700.00. If your company does offer a flat amount deductible, take as high a deductible you are willing to “share” with the company in the event of a loss. Due to the high cost of marine repairs, it is unlikely that you would have a small enough claim to warrant a low deductible.

I also recommend you take an approved US Coast Guard or US Power Squadron boating course. This can save you between 3 & 5% off the hull premium portion of the policy.

What benefits should I look for in a Policy?

There are too many available endorsements to discuss in detail here but once you determine your value, Liability amount and deductible, consider a policy that includes:

Uninsured Boater Coverage

This covers the named insured for bodily injury received aboard your boat you are legally entitled to recover from an “uninsured” owner or operator of another boat.

Pollution or Fuel Spill Liability Coverage

Most policies come with this valuable protection and cover any pollution or contamination occurrence.

Medical Payments Coverage

This is separate coverage for reasonable medical, ambulance, hospital, nursing and funeral costs that become necessary due to accidental bodily injury to a person injured while in, upon or boarding, leaving or being towed behind your boat.

Emergency Tow Reimbursement coverage

All policies now offer some form of emergency tow reimbursement coverage. The average reimbursement can vary, depending on the size of your boat, from $500 to $1500 of coverage on average. I do, however, recommend that you supplement this coverage with a quality full Tow Plan membership like the one offered by Sea Tow or any of the other quality tow plan companies.

What should I watch out for?

The worst thing that you can do is assume your policy covers it. I can tell you that there are some companies that have exclusions that will cost you dearly in the event of a claim. One endorsement to look out for is Machinery Damage Exclusion. This specifically excludes any and all claims associated with damage to your engine, drives and related equipment. I have found that over 50% of the claims I see, have something to do with damage here and if you have this endorsement, you basically have no coverage.

Some companies have Hurricane or Wind Storm deductibles. This is a separate deductible that applies in the event damage occurs to your vessel during a hurricane or other wind related storm. This deductible can be as high as 10 % of the total value of your hull value. I have even seen a 10% Theft deductible that applies when a boat is stolen.

Lay up dates can also get you in trouble. Most policies on boats over 26' have required Lay up dates where you must store your boat for the winter during these specific months. Your boat is covered while it is laid up but cannot be used for any navigation. Your policy will specifically state whether your boat is to be laid up afloat or ashore. If you leave your boat in the water after the lay up date specified and you have a claim, chances are it will be denied. In our area, we typically lay up our boats from November 1 through April 1st and the companies base their rates with this in mind, however, you can make changes to these dates if you use your boat longer. Smaller boat policies (boats under 26') usually do not have this restriction.

Miscellaneous ideas

With the coverage's I have mentioned, you will effectively build a good policy that will give you adequate coverage to protect you and your family. There are many other coverage options available to add to your policy and I recommend that you discuss fully with your agent exactly how and where you will use your boat. Also, be very specific on the type of equipment used or aboard your boat including electronics. Most policies will offer either separate coverage for these items or may lump them in with your total hull value subjecting you to the hull deductible in the event of a claim.

SHIMANO REEL RAFFLE by Ray Williams

One of our members, John Kerstanski, is donating a brand new Shimano TLD Series 25 conventional reel to the club to be raffled as a fundraiser. We will sell approximately 100 tickets to win the reel at $5.00 per chance. Tickets may be purchased by members-only at club meetings beginning with the April Meeting. The drawing for the reel will be held when all tickets are sold or at the last meeting of the year, whichever comes first. This is an excellent opportunity to obtain a very nice reel for $5.00. If you cannot attend our April meetings & want an opportunity to win the reel, send a check for $5.00 to VHFC, P.O. Box 1026, Manahawkin, NJ 08050 before May 14th, & we will enter you in the drawing.
